Course Offerings

The Swamp School conducts:

- the Broker Prelicensing Course required to qualify to take the license examination to become licensed as a real estate provisional broker in North Carolina; and
- the Postlicensing Education Program needed for a provisional broker to remove the provisional status of such license; and
- ✿ the annual Continuing Education courses needed to maintain a real estate license on active status.

Broker Continuing Education Courses

Purpose of the Continuing Education Program

The primary objective of the mandatory Continuing Education Program is to help assure that licensees possess the knowledge, skills, and competency necessary to function in the real estate business in a manner that protects and serves real estate consumers and the public interest.

Per G.S.93A-38.5, brokers must complete eight (8) credit hours of instruction annually in subjects approved by the Commission in order to retain eligibility to actively engage in real estate brokerage. Per Commission Rule 58A .1702, the eight hours must be comprised of an Update course and four credit hours of elective courses.

Course Description(s)

Elective: Wetlands and Real Estate.

Elective: [Description] Earn four Continuing Education Units with The Swamp School's online continuing education course. We will address wetland topics of importance to real estate professionals. Highlights include wetland identification methods, wetland laws and permit requirements and wetland mitigation opportunities for landowners. We will also discuss recent Supreme Court rulings about wetlands and the implications these rulings have on Federal and State regulations.

Course Materials

The Swamp School will provide each student with an electronic copy of the course materials.

Eligibility Requirements for Course Completion Certificate

Per Commission Rule 58A .1705(a):

- In order to receive credit for completing an approved continuing education course, a broker shall:
- (1) attend at least 90 percent of the scheduled instructional hours for the course;
 - (2) provide his or her legal name and license number to the education provider;
 - (3) present his or her pocket card or photo identification card, if necessary; and
 - (4) personally perform all work required to complete the course.
